Performance Testing in Azure using JMeter

- 1. Create a new load test
 - a. There are different load test options. Since, I am familiar with JMeter, I am chosing JMeter

- 2. Add the JMeter jmx file to the test script, number of agents and the load duration
- 3. and on the "Run Test" button alpha-ori / SMARTShip / Test Plans / Load test ₽ Search ξ≡ â Cloud-based load testing service is deprecated and will not be available after March 31st 2020. Click here to learn more Apache JMeter test + New - \ ひ Choose File DWH Short Term API Config_for azure.jmx Test script Search all load tests, begin typing t... $\, \nearrow \,$ ▲ Load tests Supporting files Choose Files No file chosen All load tests DWH Short Term API Config_for azure.j... Number of agents Load duration 1 minute Load location West Europe (Netherlands) Run Test →

4. after execution, we can download the results.

